Mulhall-Orlando FFA Members Participate in the Oklahoma Junior Cattlemen's Association Summer Preview Show

By: Baylee Brown; Mulhall-Orlando FFA Reporter

Orlando, OKla.- May 30-June 1 the Oklahoma Junior Cattlemen's Association board of directors hosted the OJCA Summer Preview Show in Stillwater, OK. This event included a highly competitive steer and heifer show, a livestock judging contest, showmanship contest, and many other activities relating to showing cattle. M-O FFA members Lane Blankinship, Sydney Johnson, Charley Johnson, and Baylee Brown attended the event. Lane Blankinship participated in the heifer show and was selected as Champion Bred and Owned Shorthorn. Charley Johnson had the Champion Angus Bull and a Division Champion in the Angus Show. Sydney Johnson had the Supreme Bred and Owned Heifer which was also awarded the 3rd best bred and owned heifer overall. Baylee Brown and Charley Johnson competed in the Livestock Judging Contest and were on the first place team in the senior livestock judging division. Charley was the high placing individual and Baylee was the 2nd high placing individual at this competition.

Congratulations to all the M-O FFA members who attended this event!
