M-O FFA Competes at State Livestock Judging Contests

By: Baylee Brown; Mulhall-Orlando FFA Reporter

Orlando, Okla. - On September 12th students from the M-O FFA participated in the Oklahoma State Fair Livestock Judging Competition. The Jr. FFA team placed 2nd in their age division out of 191 teams. This team consisted of Callen Oldenburg, KayLea Taylor, Baylee Brown, and Charley Johnson. Callen was 6th place individual. Casyn Larman, Jaci Wiss, Hanna Schmidt, Sydney Johnson, Maylan Fogelman, and Ashlyn Larman also participated. Later in the month of September the M-O FFA gathered to have practice for the upcoming Tulsa State Fair judging contest. They had the opportunity to evaluate and discuss classes of pigs and heifers at two local farms.

team placed 1st in their age division out of 73 teams. Callen Oldenburg was 2nd place individual, KayLea Taylor was 4th place individual, and Baylee Brown was 6th place individual out of 219 individuals competing. Other attending FFA members were Sydney Johnson, and Hanna Schmidt. At this contest they evaluated 10 classes of hogs, cattle, sheep, and goats as well as presented 3 sets of oral reasons. Judging livestock is one event that this chapter is passionate about doing and their hard work continues to pay off.
